Dear Mr. Londrigan,

I am writing to express our appreciation for the University of South Florida's decision to affiliate with the Worker Rights Consortium (WRC). We are pleased to have the University as an affiliate of the organization and we are very much looking forward to working with you to improve labor conditions for workers at collegiate apparel factories around the world.

We have recorded you as our primary contact at the University of South Florida and have also added Leni Baga to our communications mailing list.

I would like to take this opportunity to share with you, as background information, links to several documents related to the WRC and our recent work:

1. A list of the WRC's affiliate colleges and universities;
2. A list of members of the WRC's Board of Directors;
3. A report on the WRC's remediation of labor rights violations at a factory in Phnom Penh, Cambodia;
4. A memo to WRC affiliate colleges and universities on the resolution of violations of freedom of association at a factory in Port-au-Prince, Haiti;

Please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any thoughts or questions about the enclosed materials or the WRC's work in general

Also, please let us know if you will be attending our annual University Caucus Meeting on May 4 – we would love to have you there. I can be reached via email at scott.nova@workersrights.org or via phone at 202-387-4884.
